Stay Active When You Retire!

NYSNA retirees are an important part of our union! Stay active and involved by becoming a retiree member.

Who counts as a retiree? The Retired category consists of nurses not represented for collective bargaining who are 62 years or older and retired and earning not more than what social security allows.

What are retiree dues? $100.00 annually

“It’s more important than ever for retirees to be active in our union. We need to stay strong to protect quality care for our patients even after we’ve left their bedsides.”

- Marva Wade, RN
NYSNA Board Member & Retiree
